Miss Agnes Marshall, a sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mr. Robert Fitzhugh Talman, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The bride wore a becoming traveling gown of blue broadcloth, and carried white violets. Mr. and Mrs. Talman left immediately after the ceremony for a trip through the North, after which they will reside in this city.

The most brilliant dance of the season was the Christmas german given by the Alexandria German Club Friday evening at McBurney's Hall. The ballroom was decorated in evergreens and red Christmas bells, and the windows were banked with palms and poinsettia. Mr. Harry Beverley with Miss Mary Snowden as his partner led the fifty couples through many new and difficult figures, which were danced with enthusiasm.
